

HOKOWHITU SCHOOL DELEGATIONS POLICY (2025)

PURPOSE

The Hokowhitu School Board will ensure that any delegations of functions of the Board are clearly identified and monitored, and that all holders of delegations are accountable for the responsibilities entrusted to them.

GUIDELINESOverarching Principles of Delegation

1. The following responsibilities cannot be delegated under any circumstance, in accordance with the Education and Training Act (2020):
 - a. The general power of delegation.
 - b. The power to borrow money.
2. The right to exercise the delegated responsibilities identified in this policy must be confirmed in writing by the parties involved, at the point at which they first take up those responsibilities and each time this policy is reviewed.
3. If doubt should arise in the exercise of a delegated responsibility, the bona fides of the intended action should be verified with the Board to avoid risking an error of judgement.

Responsibilities Retained by the Board

The Board retains for itself and does not delegate to any executive management or staff position the following responsibilities:

4. Financial:
 - a. Approval of all operating, capital, cashflow, and property maintenance budgets, and amendments to these budgets.
 - b. Commitment or purchase of capital expenditure.
 - c. Approval of expenditure in any budget area in excess of the budgeted amount, prior to committing the expenditure.
 - d. Approval of all international travel funded in part or whole by school funds.
 - e. Commitment of operating expenditure for any invoice in excess of $10,000, except in cases of expenditure committed to address imminent risk to life, health, or safety as detailed in 12.c.
 - f. Approval of any unbudgeted expenditure in excess of $5,000, prior to committing the expenditure.
 - g. Disposal of fixed assets with a cost price in excess of $1,000.
 - h. Transfer of money between any Board transaction account and term deposit account in excess of $100,001 and for a period longer than 12 months.
5. Employment:
 - a. Appointment of the Principal.
 - b. Appointment of any permanent teachers to positions funded by Ministry of Education salaries grants will be made by an ad hoc Board committee comprising the Principal plus one or more Board representatives and/or one or more staff members.
 - c. Appointment of any permanent staff, and the salary and terms of conditions on which they are employed, which are in excess of positions funded by Ministry of Education salaries grants.
 - d. Granting of discretionary leave for all staff, with or without pay, and all leave

- requested by the Principal, in accordance with relevant employment agreements.
- e. Termination of employment of any paid employee.
6. Health and safety:
 - a. Approval of all Education Outside the Classroom (EOTC) activities involving overnight stays.
 - b. Deciding, in consultation with the Principal, to close the school due to extreme weather conditions or local emergency.
 - c. Approval of consumption of alcohol on school grounds not involving staff, or for fundraising, functions, or other special events.
 7. Legal:
 - a. Formal communication and agreements with the Minister of Education and any other Minister of the Crown or Member of Parliament.
 - b. Responses to the Secretary of Education or any other permanent head of a Government department which was initiated by a report, written communication, request for information or required declaration received from such persons and addressed to the Board or Presiding Member of the Board.
 - c. Initiation of any legal actions and any communications in relation to these actions.
 - d. Signing applications for special grants for additional buildings, or agreements to build via the Ministry of Education's local office.
 - e. Signing any other formal or legal agreement in the name of the School.
 8. Property:
 - a. Approving the use of, and setting appropriate charges for, school buildings, grounds, and property outside of school hours.
 9. Student behaviour and discipline:
 - a. Making new bylaws (school rules) or amending existing bylaws.
 - b. Suspension meetings will be conducted by an ad hoc Board committee of no less than two and no more than three Board members, not including the Principal or staff representative.

Responsibilities Delegated to the Principal

The Board delegates to the Principal the following responsibilities:

10. Curriculum and student achievement:
 - a. Day-to-day curriculum and resource management of the school.
 - b. Regular review of the Teaching and Learning Handbook.
 - c. Achievement of the Government's key achievement areas and requirements as specified in official educational policy documents.
 - d. Implementation of any other requirements specified by Act of Parliament, the Secretary of Education, or any other permanent head of a Government department.
11. Employment:
 - a. Recruitment and appointment process of staff, in consultation with the Board, required for positions funded by Ministry of Education salaries grants.
 - b. Appointment of relieving and casual staff, fixed term teacher appointments, and non-classroom teaching positions (non-core workers).
 - c. Implementation of individual and collective employment contracts.
 - d. Granting of discretionary leave in exceptional circumstances.
 - e. Granting of special leave, e.g., bereavement/tangihanga, sick, parental, domestic violence, jury service/witness leave.
 - f. Implementing and conducting an annual performance growth cycle for all teaching staff.

12. Financial:

- a. Managing effectively the school's finances, including expenditure within the budget (including within each account/line item), in accordance with the school's Strategic Plan and policies.
- b. Preparation of financial statements that meet the requirements of the Board, auditors, and Ministry of Education guidelines.
- c. Preparation of payroll processing and expenditure reports.
- d. Authorisation of all local travel, national travel, and reimbursements to staff.
- e. Managing and monitoring of all expenditure on entertainment and gifts, including a register for the recognition of staff service.
- f. Approval of any orders for goods and services up to the value of $10,000, provided such an order will not exceed the Board approved budget allocation for the expenditure item involved.
- g. Transfer of money between any Board transaction account and term deposit account of amounts less than $100,001 and for periods less than 12 months.
